2. Executive Order Providing for the Closing of Governmental Departments and Agencies on June 11, 2004

President Bush declared the closure of governmental entities on Friday June 11, 2004 as a mark of respect for President Ronald Reagan.

City Council to discuss the closure of Auburn City Hall on Friday, June 11, 2004.

The Council unanimously decided that, in view of the current budget situation, it would not be wise to grant a paid holiday to city employees. Rather the employees were encouraged to honor the former president by taking all or part of Friday, June 11th using their earned compensatory time, vacation, floating holiday or any other personal time off to which they are entitled.

By RESOLUTION 04-72 declare Friday, June 11, 2004 a day of respect and mourning for President Ronald Wilson Reagan and to encourage staff make every effort to accommodate requests from their subordinate staff who choose to take all or part of Friday, June 11, 2004 to honor President Reagan using their earned compensatory time, vacation, floating holiday or any other personal time off to which they are entitled. MOTION: Maki/Sands/Approved 4:0/Absent: Dowdin
